Washington, Feb. 11.—The senate went on a tax reduction spree last night and added $100,000,000 slash to the plans of the republican administration leaders for a $352,000,000 reduction.

All levies upon automobiles, trucks and admissions to amusements were wiped out with the aid of democrats who deserted their coalition with republicans to join the independents. The rebellious group asserted belief that taxes could be reduced far more than the $350,000,000, which Secretary of the Treasury Mellon thought safe for the nation's finances.

Today Chairman Smoot of the finance committee announced he would seek to rescind the decrees and because many senators were absent at the time the vote was taken it seemed that he would be able to retract a few of the reductions which, he believes, might leave the treasury in a precarious position.

Washington, Feb. 11.—Secretary of the Treasury Mellon today came out against the senate's action in increasing tax reduction to $452,000,000, warning that such a slash would cause an annual government deficit in the future.

"The proposed cut exceeds the margin we consider available," he said, commenting on the senate vote last night to abolish all amusement, automobile and truck excise taxes.

He predicted the reduction would be modified when the bill went to conference to arrange the differences between the two houses on provisions.

PROTEST DIVERSION OF WATER FROM LAKES BY CHICAGO

Washington, Feb. 11.—(UP)—A resolution protesting against the diversion of water from the Great Lakes through the Chicago drainage canal was presented to President Coolidge yesterday by delegates of the Great Lakes Harbor association. The resolution appealed to congress and the president to provide legislation permanently prohibiting such diversion of water of the Great Lakes in order that these bodies be kept as "navigation highways."

The resolution charged the issuance of a water diversion permit to the city of Chicago by Secretary of War Weeks last spring as a "blunder" and petitioned that the secretary of war be shorn of his power.

The preamble of the resolution pointed out that the United States supreme court has held that any diversion of water affecting the natural level of boundary water is expressly provided against by the international treaty with Canada.

The delegation was presented to the president by Senator Lenroot, republican, Wisconsin. Members of the delegation were William George Bruce and R. H. Weins, both of Milwaukee; George E. Hardy, Toledo, Ohio; Captain John Stevenson, Detroit; C. Alfred MacGuire, Toronto; R. Fuller, Harrisburg, Pa., and W. S. McCormick, Duluth.

60 Farmer Women at Garment Making Project

PA MARRIES GIRL HIS SON HAD JILTED

Chicago, Feb. 11.—(UP)—Miss Dorothy Cierski, 19, and Charles P. Armstrong, 48, were married yesterday, the culmination of an unusual romance.

Miss Cierski formerly was the sweetheart of Armstrong's son, Donald, a high school student, who introduced her to his father. Donald and Dorothy changed their minds and he married another girl. The elder Armstrong then courted and wed Miss Cierski. "Donald is delighted at our marriage," said the elder Armstrong today as he completed arrangements to move to Madison, Wis., with his bride.

HUMILIATED, HIGH STRUNG GIRL KILLS SELF

MARCHESA GABRIELE DISERA, OF BERLIN, WAS VICTIM

HAD BEEN EXPELLED FROM THE MOST EXCLUSIVE THEATRICAL CLUB

By GUETHER TONN
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Berlin, Feb. 11.—Humiliated by her expulsion from Berlin's most exclusive theatrical club and despairing at a quarrel with her sister, Maria Orska, noted stage star, Marchesa Gabriele Disera committed suicide today.

The expulsion followed a demonstration by the beautiful German woman (married to an Italian) in favor of Italy. After defending Italy's course toward Germany in the recent international dispute over South Tyrol, Marchesa shouted "Long live Mussolini."

Maria Orska upbraided her for her pro-Italian spirit and for the demonstration, whereupon the Marchesa killed herself.

Maria Orska is one of the most famous women of the Berlin stage. Strikingly beautiful with black hair and almost uncannily brilliant eyes, she has developed a large following for plays of a weird or shocking nature. Among her great successes have been "Erdgeist," "Die Duche Ded Pandora" and "John the Baptist."

CHINESE TEAR DOWN AMERICAN FLAG AT HOSPITAL

By ALFRED HICKS
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Hong Kong, Feb. 11.—The American flag was torn down at the hospital of the American Presbyterian mission on Hainan Island when a group of 500 communists and Canton government troops attacked the mission command.

The hospital was in charge of Miss Catherine McCreery, an American nurse, and her only aide at the time of the attack was a coolie, for the remaining native attendant had taken refuge in a church when the attack started.

The attendants were beaten by the attacking group, but Miss McCreery was apparently unharmed.

THREE HELD FOR ALLEGED PART IN BOOTLEGGING

Duluth, Feb. 11.—(UP)—Three men were held for arraignment in federal court here today on warrants issued in connection with the government investigation of an alleged national bootlegging ring with headquarters in St. Paul and Cleveland.

Those arrested are Eli L. Hart, vice president of the Hart Transfer & Storage company; William P. McKinnon and Julius Paul. Fifty thousand dollars worth of alcohol was seized by federal agents at the Hart Transfer company warehouse in April, 1924.

Further arrests are expected in Minnesota iron range towns and in the twin cities today but agents refused to divulge the towns or the persons to be taken.

LOWDEN HAILED AS LEADER IN FARM REFORM

BY FARMERS ATTENDING ANNUAL RED RIVER VALLEY WINTER SHOW

LOWDEN'S ADDRESS ON FARM QUESTION ENTHUSIASTICALLY RECEIVED

Crookston, Minn., Feb. 11.—(UP)—Former Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois was hailed the foremost leader of American agricultural reform today by the hundreds of farmers attending the annual Red River Valley winter show here.

Lowden's address on the farm question before the largest gathering of the show last night was enthusiastically received. The former governor, however, denied aspirations to leadership in his first public utterance here. His statement was taken by some to deny the widespread belief that he may be a presidential candidate in 1928.

In his evening address, the principal event of the program, Lowden endorsed the Dickinson bill as the best plan of farm relief so far brought forward. He praised the accomplishments of co-operative movements. But it will be many years, he said, before the organizations are sufficiently strong to take care of the surplus crop problem.

"It is clear that the surplus is inevitable and desirable from the viewpoint of producer and consumer alike," Lowden said. "It should not, as it does now, operate to the disadvantage to produce that surplus. The problem is to market the surplus in the most advantageous terms possible."

Under present conditions, he declared, the farmer is more in danger of suffering from a bumper crop than from a short crop. Last year's corn crop as compared with the smaller but more valuable crop of two years ago was cited as an example. Government potato statistics were also quoted to illustrate.

WINTER WEATHER HOLDS SWAY ON ATLANTIC COAST

TEMPERATURES DROPPING FAR BELOW FREEZING POINT

SOME 15 LIVES SNUFFED OUT IN YESTERDAY'S BLIZZARD

Temperatures dropping far below freezing, but the weather bureau held hope that the thermometers would rise tomorrow. The thermometer here got down to six degrees during the night.

Upward of 15 lives were snuffed out in yesterday's blizzard. Traffic of all kinds continued to be delayed. Low temperatures here sheeted the sidewalks with ice.

Although the weather bureau measured yesterday's snowfall at 10.5 inches, it reached a depth of a foot in Central Park and other spots, making a total of 22.4 inches in the two storms of the week.

Probably the most serious traffic paralysis since 1888 has been precipitated, the city's $2,000,000 appropriations for storm clearance will be wiped out by the blizzard. One million went last week and yesterday's fall was larger than the previous one.

Governor Blaine granted four conditional pardons, two commutations of sentence and denied the applications for pardon of seven others.

TIAJUANA'S VICE REALM NEARING END

CONDITIONS INVESTIGATED AT NOTORIOUS TURF RESORT

7 MEN UNDER ARREST CHARGED WITH ASSAULTING GIRL

San Diego, Calif., Feb. 11.—(UP)—The end of Tiajuana's vice realm was seen today as American and Mexican authorities continued their investigation of conditions at the notorious turf resort.

Seven men, including Chief of Police Llanos, were under arrest at the Mexican border town today accused of assaulting Clytie Petet, San Diego girl and central figure in the quadruple "shame suicide" which wiped out her entire family.

Arrests were made by F. M. Peralta, inspector general of police for the northern division of Baja, Calif., and Pareyon, private secretary to Governor Roderiguez, who was expected at Tiajuana today to take charge of the probe into affairs of the resort.

Arrests followed a simultaneous investigation of authorities of the two countries at the request of San Diego officials. The latter have joined with the border authorities in demanding a clean-up of the vice dens, chief attraction at the race track village.

The Petet tragedy culminated with the death of Clytie, last survivor of the family of four, who, in a spirit of outraged righteousness after the Tiajuana disgrace, are believed to have committed wholesale suicide, inhaling gas.

The Petets, who came here recently from Missouri, had gone to Tiajuana on a sight-seeing trip. The daughters, Clytie and Audrey, are said to have been drugged in Amador's Cafe, dragged through the streets of the town to the Naccenal hotel and attacked.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Petet, made frantic all night efforts to locate their daughters, the family returning to San Diego where they enlisted aid of local authorities. The girls were then found and the family reunited. Their gas suffocated bodies were found in their house here Saturday night.

"We cannot stand the dishonor and the disgrace of what has happened and have decided upon the only course to follow," a note left by the father, said.

San Diego, Calif., Feb. 11.—The United States navy today joined the American and Mexican probe of vice conditions in Tiajuana, brought to light by the "shame suicide" of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Petet and their two daughters.

While civil authorities delved into the alleged vice ring at Tiajuana said to have been led by Chief of Police Llanos, Rear Admiral A. H. Robertson, commandant of the 11th naval district, ordered an investigation of the continued imprisonment of a naval petty officer in the Tiajuana jail.

Elmo K. Gordon, 21, petty officer on the U. S. S. Gannett, is entering his seventh month of confinement on what is believed to be a trumped up and greatly exaggerated charge.

The petty officer was sentenced by a Mexican court to two years, three months and 15 days on a charge made by a Tiajuana cabaret entertainer, who, it is alleged, later retracted her accusation.

Further probe of the Petet case, in which seven Mexicans have been jailed was delayed pending the arrival some time today of Governor Roderiguez.

TAKING SEX, SENSATIONALISM OUT OF MOVIES

DISCORD SHAKES FEDERAL MOTION PICTURE COUNCIL

CHARGE MADE CONVENTION WAS PACKED TO ENDORSE UPSHAW BILL

Chicago, Feb. 11.—(UP)—Discord today shook the Federal Motion Picture council in annual convention here, called to find ways and means of taking sex and sensationalism out of the movie industry. Canon W. S. Chase of New York, one of the leaders of the convention, favors passage of the Upshaw bill for federal regulation of the industry. Mrs. David Ross of Indianapolis, one of the delegates, and Frank J. Rembusch, president of the Motion Picture Theater Owners of Indiana, charged that the convention was packed with delegates to endorse the Upshaw bill. Canon Chase hotly denied that there was any idea of railroadng any such measure through congress.

Rembusch told the delegates that 99 per cent of the people do not want censorship.

"Nobody wants censorship but a few of you," he told the delegates, "and you cannot tell me that you know more about how this country should run than the 99 per cent, who are opposed to your ideas."

Judge Ben Lindsey of Denver caused some excitement when it was discovered that the program was "too crowded" to give him the floor for an address.

Judge Lindsey represents the Parent-Teachers association of Colorado and is opposed to federal censorship. The judge called in the newspapermen and talked vigorously about trying to make people good from the outside instead of the inside. Some time later it was announced that room had been found on the program and the judge would be allowed to speak.

GREER BOYS' FATE TO JURY AT DENVER

LADS CHARGED WITH CONSPIRACY TO COUNTERFEIT

CHARGE CONSTITUTES POSSESSION OF PLATES AND MAKING SPURIOUS NOTES

Denver, Col., Feb. 11.—(UP)—The fate of Milton and Clifford Greer, charged with conspiracy to counterfeit will probably go to the jury in federal court here before night.

The state rested its case late yesterday after G. K. Goddard, department of justice agent, told of the discovery of counterfeiting plates and related a story told him by William B. Larkin who was in jail with the Greers and claims to have been taken into their confidence.

Larkin, it was testified, "tipped" officers which resulted in the finding of $2,800 in spurious bank notes under the railroad station platform at Eau Claire, Wis., and $7,000 worth at the Greer farm near Lansford, Wis.

Milton Greer was convicted several weeks ago for possessing and passing counterfeit money fined $3,000 and sentenced to four years at Leavenworth.

The present charge constitutes the possession of plates and manufacture of counterfeit bank notes.

STATE LEGISLATURE NOT TO MIX IN COAL MINE STRIKE

Harrisburg, Pa., Feb. 11.—(UP)—The senate committee on mines and mining yesterday voted against action by the state legislature to end the coal strike.

The same action was taken on the Sowers resolution calling in the miners and operators for a conference with the general assembly to work out a plan of settlement.

FINAL APPEAL OF COUNSEL IN EWERT TRIAL

FORMER TREASURER OF S. D. RURAL CREDITS BOARD ON TRIAL

JUDGE J. H. BOTTOM COMPLETES INSTRUCTIONS TO JURY

Faulton, S. D., Feb. 11.—(UP)—Final arguments of counsel were started today in the embezzlement trial of A. W. Ewert, former treasurer of the South Dakota Rural Credits board and Pierre banker. Judge J. H. Bottom completed his instruction to jurors at the opening of the session and W. J. Jacobs, prosecutor, opened arguments for the state.

The defense rested its case unexpectedly yesterday. Judge Bottom started instructions to the jury, but proceedings were delayed by a wrangle between attorneys over acceptability of the judge's statements.

Under South Dakota law attorneys may supplement the instructions of the court with statements of their own. The principal issue of the argument was acceptability as evidence of letters written by Governor Carl Gunderson to Ewert dismissing the banker from state office and ordering payment of alleged shortages in his accounts.

The case is now expected to be given to the jury late today or tomorrow. Ewert is charged with embezzling $211,000 of credits board funds.

Jacobs devoted his allotted argument time to a summary of the state's case against Ewert, citing figures which he said were "uncontradicted in the evidence." The shortage of the former bank president was easily computed, he said, by summarizing the total of receipts and expenditures and subtracting what the state actually received.

The prosecutor also referred to Ewert's former standing of honor and trust in the state. He warned the jury that all are equal before the law and none above the law. "It is a clear case," Jacobs concluded.

Sixty farmer women, representing practically every township in the county, attended the garment making demonstration at the Chamber of Commerce today.

The house and social committee of the chamber prepared for forty at the dinner at noon, but had to scurry out for more food as the number of women kept increasing, with such success that everyone attending was well taken care of. The interest in the project is indicated by the enthusiasm with which the women entered upon the study, and the attention with which they listened to Miss Julia Newton, state home demonstration agent.

Following the dinner, the women adjourned to the large room of the chamber, where a two hour session in garment making demonstration was held.

Four members of the house and social committee of the Chamber of Commerce waited on the tables. They were Chairman Frank G. Hall, C. W. Hoffman, Wm. Spencer and Dr. A. K. Cohen. TEAR GAS BOMBS TO REPEL VIOLENCE

Scranton, Pa., Feb. 11.—(UP)—Tear gas bombs will be ordered by Scranton police to prevent violence in this district following the attempt of a mob of 1,000 strikers to compel the Diamond Washeries to suspend operations during the anthracite strike, public safety officials announced.

The riot squad of 25 men armed with riot guns continues on duty, after dispersing the strikers late Tuesday. Their demonstration was the first expression of mob violence in the anthracite fields since the strike began on September 1.

Owners of the Gibbons Coal Company's washery at South Scranton appealed for police protection claiming the striking miners had threatened to blow up the works.

Police hurried to the scene but found no trace of any explosives. Several officers were left on duty at the place.

BIG HAUL OF MOONSHINE MADE

350 Gallons of Corn And Rye Mash Seized by Sheriff Near Ironton

ALSO 50 GALLON STILL

Outfit Found in a Small Dugout on a Farm Near There

The members of the sheriff's office have made a number of big hauls of moonshine and mash in the last week, including a seizure of 350 gallons of corn and rye mash made Tuesday near Ironton.

The big 50 gallon copper still, with a complete array of paraphernalia, is now resting in the sheriff's office, while 2½ gallons of the manufactured product is locked securely in the vault. The still according to the sheriff was taken from the farm of Mary Luzar, about three miles west of Ironton, in Ironton township. The haul included the copper still with coils, a pumping outfit for the cooling apparatus, tester, 350 gallons of mash, and 2½ gallons of liquor.

The outfit was set up in a small dugout about eighty rods from the farmhouse, and had this sign tacked up over the door, printed in large pencilled letters on an old brown paper grocery sack:

Keep Off
Man. You!
Don't Kill Yourself.
A. V.

This was the second haul made from this place. Just two months before the place had been raided by Sheriff Reid, Henry Stein, and Theodore Nesheim, and a still improvised from two copper wash boilers, about 20 gallon capacity, with 10 gallons of liquor and 140 gallons mash seized.

Deputies George Rardin and Henry Stein made the second seizure.

Mrs. Luzar will undoubtedly be brought before district court on both charges, at the next term of court.

Another big haul was made last week, when Deputies Nesheim and Stein raided a place on Fool's Lake, in Mission township, on the other side of Crosby, when 90 gallons of manufactured wine were taken from a hidden place in a horse barn. The men arrested in connection with this raid were Phillip Dumovich and Jos Bobanich.

The wine press was located under the floor of the barn, and the deputies had to tear up three heavy planks to get at it. Fifty gallons of mash were taken also at this place. According to meager information regarding it, the still had been hidden there for six years.

In Fairfield township this week, the same deputies seized a copper wash boiler still, 15 gallon capacity, on the Frank Lindstrom farm, operated by August Johnson. No mash or liquor was found here.

Treat Colds 2 Ways

With ONE Treatment

WHEN rubbed over throat and chest for all kinds of cold troubles Vicks VapoRub does two things at once:

(1) Its ingredients are vaporized by the body heat and inhaled direct to the inflamed air passages, loosening the phlegm and easing the difficult breathing, and

(2) At the same time it warms and stimulates the skin like an old-fashioned poultice, "drawing out" the soreness and pain and thus aiding the vapors inhaled to break up the congestion.

This double action of Vicks usually relieves the most stubborn cold over night.

The meetings are held every evening at 7:45 o'clock, and everyone is welcome, a special invitation being extended to the ministers of the city.

SHEIK EMMANUEL SUED FOR $100,000

Was In Brainerd in November, 1922, and Delivered Three Addresses

June Warwick, British Beauty, Claims Romance With Babylonian Tribesman

Sheik Raphael Emmanuel, known to many Brainerd people because of his lectures in this city in the fall of 1922, is the defendant of a $100,000 breach of promise suit brought by a Chicago songstress, Miss June Warwick, according to a full page article in the magazine section of a Chicago Sunday paper.

The sheik spoke before three audiences in Brainerd in November, 1922, speaking to the high school students, and to an audience at the Koop block hall under the auspices of the Business and Professional Women's club, and at the Congregational church on Sunday evening, Nov. 12, that year. His subject was "Mesopotamia Today."

In the magazine article, Miss Warwick tells how she first met the sheik, how many of his whims seemed queer, how she finally promised to marry him, and then how the break-up came. Miss Warwick was a convent beauty who came to this country to seek fame as a singer, and met, instead, an Oriental romance in middlewestern America. "His eyes were twin volcanoes, seething with fires that scorched my soul," she says.

She tells of breakfasts together consisting of hot, salty milk as the only article of food, and also of songs in which the sheik accompanied himself by grating his forefinger and thumb together, producing weird noises, which strangely enough, seemed to give a correct musical background to this somber and melancholy, or impassioned and ferocious solos.

Raphael Emmanuel addressed many chautauqua audiences, and appeared on a number of lyceum courses throughout the country. He was a lineal descendant of King Nebuchadnezzar, of the Babylonian empire, he claimed, tracing his ancestry to that famous king through his mother. His father was a high priest in his tribe, and at his death, Raphael sold his inheritance for money with which to visit America and other lands of which he had heard while in Mesopotamia.

Many Brainerd people learned to know the sheik intimately while he was here, as he was entertained in a number of the homes of this city, and met his audiences in a cordial, friendly manner.

BUILDING UP FARMER TRADE

FIFTY per cent of the business done in Brainerd, it is estimated, is with the farmers. We believe that it will pay this whole community to extend trade relations with the farmers. Every agency in community work can be brought into action to create better feeling between town and countryside.

One of the big steps was taken by the Brainerd Chamber of Commerce, when through its committee chairman, S. R. Adair, and associate committee members, it raised the fund which made possible the purchase of dairy sires for the improvement of dairy herds in the county. It has forecast the doom of the scrub bull, and the mongrel cow.

Another big thing was the advent of the cucumber industry and the glory for its commercial success is now reflected in great measure by several agencies. County Agent E. G. Roth started the movement, the Lions club assisted and the Chamber of Commerce, according to their reports shown also aided in the community movement, as did the Heinz people who bought the cucumbers and established the salting station here.

There is a great future in this Brainerd lake region for the canning industry. The Barr people have made a national success of canning peas, corn, tomatoes and even sauer kraut at St. Cloud. Climate here is not much different from that obtaining at St. Cloud and it is hoped that the Barr people or other great canning industries may be interested in establishing branches in the Brainerd lake region.

That canning thrives here is shown concretely by the experience of G. W. Hunt who for many years has operated a small plant at Bay Lake and whose customers include prominent summer tourists and local people. His canned goods have a wonderful flavor because they are canned shortly after the crop is picked from vines or stalks.

Brainerd at one time had a farmer making excellent brooms, in fact C. N. Erickson and many other Brainerd merchants bought large stocks. The farmer removed to Brainerd and took up another line of business and that was the end of the broom making locally.

The creamery and livestock associations of the farmers are constantly expanding and doing more business. Cream checks payable monthly now contribute largely to the ready money of the farmer.

Brainerd offers a good market for the farmers crops and fuel and in summer time the tourist trade offers a wonderful cash market.

The county of Crow Wing, in building its court house, took cognizance of the importance of the farming industry by dedicating one of its largest and most comfortable rooms for farmer use and there are held meetings of farm bureau, creamery association, etc.

The advent of good roads, the maintenance and extension of such roads; the extension of the rural telephone and the radio, the automobile, etc., all have done their share in removing a former isolation which had often depressed the man of the soil and his family.

We believe there is no county excelling Crow Wing county in the advantages offered settlers, in the markets and roads and schools, in the many farm conveniences prevalent, and in the reasonable price of unimproved or improved farm lands.

Tenant farmers of Iowa and Illinois and other midwest sections should spend their summer vacation in Crow Wing county and we believe that such short visits will win them from their former homes and cause them to settle here.

SOCIAL SERVICE ACTIVITIES FOR MEN

THE Salvation Army maintains 99 industrial homes in the principal cities of the United States. In these homes unemployed men spend three or four weeks for the purpose of working themselves back to respectability. They sort and bale waste paper and repair furniture and clothing collected from citizens. The paper is returned to the mills and the remade clothing and furniture are sold to laboring people at nominal prices. The men are ultimately placed in positions and are frequently reunited with their families.

The Army further maintains 78 working men's hotels where men who are temporarily embarrassed or who earn low wages are provided with comfortable lodging in a wholesome atmosphere either at nominal prices or on a charity basis.

The Army also maintains 88 employment bureaus in the United States where all services are rendered free of charge.

Over 12,000 prisoners are members of the Brighter Day League, a Salvation Army "fraternity," behind the gray walls. Over more than 300 "life-termers" are members of the Army's Lifer's club and a systematic plan of relief for the families of prisoners is maintained, and more than 600 prisoners are annually entrusted to the prison department on parole. In several prisons throughout the country, notable at Folsom, California, Pendleton, Indiana, San Quentin, California, Marquette, Michigan, McAlester, Oklahoma, and Trenton, New Jersey, there are complete Salvation Army Corps composed entirely of prisoners at work within the prison walls.

The Army further maintains six Naval and Military Club Houses designed to provide the army and navy men with wholesome recreation while off duty.

INCOME TAX PUBLICITY REPEAL

PUBLISHING income taxes paid by millionaires and film celebrities and others really had no effect on taxes. It satisfied an idle curiosity to scan the papers and see how much Henry Ford paid, and Mary Pickford, and Rockefeller and Morgan, and after it was read, what good did it do?

Newspaper men, as a rule, unless they were in the class of Hearst and the late Frank Munsey, paid little or no tax.

In fact, the publication of the income tax of the super-rich did not create as much interest as running the personal property tax list in The Brainerd Dispatch.

COMMERCIAL secretaries of nearly 40 Minnesota cities are expected to attend the annual winter meeting of the State Association of Commercial Secretaries in St. Paul today and tomorrow. Among the topics to be discussed will be relief for the farmer, better tourist camps and abatement of the peddler nuisance.

OVERTURES FOR SETTLING COAL STRIKE

DEVELOPMENTS, HOWEVER, ARE SHROUDED IN SECRECY

INGLIS TRANSFERS HEADQUARTERS
FROM SCRANTON TO PHILADELPHIA

Philadelphia, Feb. 11.—Leaders of the striking anthracite coal miners and the coal mine owners gathered quietly and suddenly in Philadelphia today, entirely without previous announcement, while the hope flew through the anthracite mining district that a settlement of the strike might be at hand.

Major W. W. Inglis, head of the anthracite mine owners' negotiating committee, who arrived from Scranton unannounced last night, went into secret conference with the other mine owners early today.

Then miners' representatives began arriving. Word came from Wilkesbarre that John L. Lewis had left there for Philadelphia. Andrew Matthey, another of the miners' scale committee; Ellis Searles, who acts as spokesman for the miners, and several others arrived at miners' headquarters in the Bellevue-Stratford hotel.

By mid-morning a conference of miners' leaders was in progress behind locked doors and with even telephone communication with their suite cut off.

An early morning train brought Alvin Markie, chairman of the negotiating conference. He went to the Union League club but left immediately, ostensibly to attend conferences.

The greatest secrecy shrouded all proceedings. No one would discuss what the developments might be.

In the meantime unconfirmed reports raced through the anthracite mining district.

One report had it that Secretary of Labor Davis or his representative had asked the parties to the strike to meet him in Philadelphia. Another was that President Coolidge had taken action quietly. Still another had it that at the close of the Philadelphia conference two weeks ago the two sides were not as far apart as their statements indicated, and they were coming together without outside pressure.

Scranton, Pa., Feb. 11.—(UP)—That overtures are being made for a settlement of the anthracite strike was indicated today by developments in the situation that are shrouded in secrecy.

Major W. W. Inglis, chairman of the operators' wage scale committee, has transferred his headquarters from Scranton to Philadelphia, it is understood that the entire operators' conference is in Philadelphia.

It has been definitely ascertained that Rinaldo Capellini, president of District No. 1, United Mine Workers, will leave today for Philadelphia.

One source of information in the mine strike said today "There will be a peace move that will probably succeed within the next 24 hours."

Philadelphia, Feb. 11.—With rumors of impending federal mediation in the anthracite strike current, the presence of Major W. W. Inglis, chairman of the operators' negotiating committee, in Philadelphia, and John L. Lewis and members of the miners' scale committee expected here today from the coal regions, the nebulous rumors of further progress toward peace in the anthracite region began to take definite shape today.

No definite order of what was in the air was available at either Lewis' or Inglis' headquarters early today. At Lewis' office it was merely admitted that he was on his way to Philadelphia with members of the miners' scale committee. Inglis could not be reached.

Statements from the coal region that there was new hope for settlement through rumors credited to "reliable sources," that President Coolidge had appointed representatives to meet miners' and operators' leaders, set the region in a high pitch of excitement. This was not even abated when a statement from Lewis' headquarters in Wilkesbarre said the miners were without knowledge of the proposed new moves.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Feb. 11.—John L. Lewis left the strike headquarters of the United Mine Workers here today for a trip to Philadelphia, that caused a sudden revival of hope that a settlement of the anthracite strike is at hand.

Union spokesmen at strike headquarters refused to talk about Lewis' trip, but it is understood peace overtures were extended last night by the operators through their spokesman, Major W. W. Inglis.

Predictions that a rift in the strike clouds will appear in the next 24 hours were made unofficially.

Washington, Feb. 11.—The senate committee on education and labor today began consideration of the Robinson bill to create a coal conciliation board in strike emergencies in an effort to sweep away constitutional objections and find some feasible permanent solution of present differences.

The fact that anthracite coal mining is confined to the state of Pennsylvania and hence might legally be considered purely a state matter, was the primary obstacle in the path of the committee.

The Robinson bill authorizes the president to appoint a board in an emergency to examine witnesses and compel the operators to show their books.

Washington, Feb. 11.—A sub committee favorable to coal legislation was appointed by Chairman Phipps of the senate committee on education and labor today to consider the coal bills before the senate and others that may be later introduced.

Senator Borah, Idaho, republican, was named chairman of the subcommittee. Senators Copeland, New York, democrat, and Metcalf, Rhode Island, republican, are other members of the committee.

Washington, Feb. 11.—(UP)—General John J. Pershing returned to Washington today from Arica, Chile, where he served as chairman of the Tacna-Arica plebiscitary commission, carrying out the Coolidge award in the boundary dispute between Chile and Peru until ill health forced his resignation.

Pershing refused to discuss the Tacna-Arica situation until after he holds a conference with Secretary of State Kellogg today.

3 CUP STARS PICK LENGLEN AS WINNER

SAY SHE WILL DEFEAT WILLS IN FIRST MATCH

BOROTRA, LA COSTE, BRUGNON
FAVOR THE FRENCH
GIRL

CLAIM SHE HAS MORE DIVERSI-FIED AND ACCURATE
GAME

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
New York, Feb. 11.—Three ranking French Davis cup stars, here for the national indoor tennis championships and the international team matches, pick Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen to defeat Miss Helen Wills the first time they meet on the courts.

Jean Borotra, holder of the American indoor title; Rene La Coste, Wimbledon champion, and Jacques Brugnon favor the French star, because of a more diversified and more accurate game, longer experience and superior generalship.

The French players said they would not express an opinion about the relative ability of the two players if they did not think it was their duty to defend Mlle. Lenglen against any impression that might prevail that she lacks courage.

"Next to her parents, we know Suzanne best," Borotra said, "and we are competent to dispute any charge or insinuation that she is not, what you call in this country, 'game'."

"We have seen her exhibit the greatest courage several times in taking the courts for matches when she should have been in bed and we know that she never will retire under fire."

Much depends, in their opinion, on the style of game that the American girl chooses to play when they meet first and they said they would not be at all surprised if she played a daring, mixed game to test her opponent's skill and prepare herself for the French and British championships that are to come.

RESIN BALL MAY DECREASE HEAVY HITTING

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Feb. 11.—Fans are led to believe by winter gossip that heavy hitting, so pronounced in the major leagues during the last four years, will be decreased by the repeal of the rule prohibiting the use of resin on the ball.

The increase in slugging was blamed on the rule prohibiting the use of any foreign substance on the ball and the change in the construction of the ball to make it more lively.

The magnates, in spite of many reasons to believe otherwise, insisted that the ball was built the same as it was before Babe Ruth started driving them out of the parks and that the game was not being changed to suit the commercial market.

Players insisted all along that the ball had a lot of rabbit in it and they expressed the fear that some of the infielders would be killed if something was not done to curb the heavy hitting.

Late last season there was a very noticeable decrease in hitting and the players said that the ball had been changed again. Among those who noticed a difference was Rogers Hornsby, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals and the champion batsman of the National league.

"I know that the ball during the last month of the season was not as lively as the one used earlier in the year but I don't know the reason," he said.

Many of the club owners felt that there was too much hitting in the game and that baseball was losing some of its most entertaining features. Base running, for instance, became a lost art as there was no reason to risk a player's limbs in sneaking a base when the chances were good that he could be knocked in.

Perhaps this is the reason for the change in the rule, designed to relieve some of the handicap imposed upon the pitchers but it remains to be seen how much of a benefit it will prove.

Practically all of the players—and they are the best qualified to express an opinion—believe that the use of resin will increase the control of pitchers especially in hot weather but few of them believe that resin will take the life out of the ball.

"Fast ball pitchers like Dazzy Vance and good curve ball pitchers like Joe Bush ought to be able to do better with resin on their hands but ordinary pitchers will get no better results," Hornsby said recently.

The players all insist that pitchers have been using resin for two seasons, during which a bag has been kept on the bench and that only in cases of prolonged innings were they bothered by sweaty hands.

CHAMBER IS AGAINST FREIGHT TRUCK LINES

Resolution Adopted at Meeting Last Night Voicing Disapproval

RAILWAY SERVICE ADEQUATE

Brainerd is Dependent to Large Extent on N. P. Railway Payroll

The Chamber of Commerce at its meeting last night went on record as being against the proposed transportation of freight into and out of the city by freight truck lines, and voiced its disapproval in a resolution. The action came in answer to a petition by a St. Cloud company, which asked the chamber for its approval of the truck transportation, preparatory to its seeking a permit from the state railroad and warehouse commission.

The resolution, which was offered by Con O'Brien and seconded by H. P. Dunn, and adopted by the chamber, reads as follows:

"Whereas, It is a well known fact that the city of Brainerd and Crow Wing county are depending to a large extent on the payroll of the Northern Pacific Railway company for the support of its industries,

"And Whereas, We feel that the transportation facilities provided by the Northern Pacific Railway Company are adequate at the present time,

"And Whereas, Any reduction in transportation of freight by the Northern Pacific Railway company will correspondingly reduce the payroll of employees at the city of Brainerd,

"And Whereas, The transportation of freight by truck to the City of Brainerd will not materially increase the employment of labor of the citizens of Brainerd,

"Therefore, Be it Resolved, That the Chamber of Commerce of Brainerd, Minnesota go on record as not being in favor of the proposed transportation of freight by the auto truck lines to Brainerd, and also discourage the transportation of passengers by bus line."

Many Attend Dinner

A large number of members attended the dinner meeting of the chamber last night, about fifty being served by the house and social committee. The dinner was enjoyed by all. A pleasant feature of the dinner was the ice cream, donated by the Haydon Company gratis, and which received a rising vote of thanks.

President R. R. Gould asked the manufacturers present to tell of their businesses. In response, J. F. Cibuzar, of the Brainerd Bottling company, told of how he came to the city a few years ago, buying the business with no sale of stock to outsiders, asking no money to help him locate here, and at present has an industry which reaches out into a radius of fifty miles, covering his territory by truck. The tourist business here has been good, and Mr. Cibuzar stated his belief that other lines of industry might be attracted to the city as in his own case.

Kampmann and Son and the Brainerd Foundry were not represented at the meeting and will be called on later. E. F. Hedeen, distributor of the Huiett Anti-Frosting, manufactured in Brainerd, spoke about that product. The manufacture of this article was begun in November, 1925, and already 50,000 pieces have been shipped out. A national advertising campaign by this company has carried the name of Brainerd to all states and to foreign countries, under the slogan, "Brainerd, Gateway to the 10,000 Lakes." The company had exhibits at the New York, Chicago, Montreal and Minneapolis auto shows, and Mr. Hedeen feels confident that they will soon have shipped out two million pieces.

Wm. T. Conkin spoke of an advertising proposition with a Minnesota Lakes tourist guide published for tourist distribution, and asked the chamber for facts to be embodied in the booklet.

Regrets Michael Leaving

S. R. Adair offered a resolution for adoption regarding the departure from the city of H. F. Michael, who has disposed of his business here. The resolution was adopted, and reads as follows:

"WHEREAS, it is known to the members of the Brainerd Chamber of Commerce that H. F. Michael has disposed of his business interests in Brainerd and is, with his family, about to remove to Phoenix, Arizona,

"NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved by the Brainerd Chamber of Commerce that in the removal of H. F. Michael from Brainerd, we realize that the City of Brainerd is sustaining the loss of a citizen who has contributed much to the up-building of the City of Brainerd and many of its public and civic organizations, and that the work of said citizen on the City Council and in the various other organizations in which he has had an active part, has been painstaking, thorough and valuable and is appreciated by the Brainerd Chamber of Commerce and its members, and that a copy of this resolution be sent to Mr. H. F. Michael, the original entered in the minutes of this meeting and a copy given to the press of the City, and

"BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That it is the sense and desire of the Brainerd Chamber of Commerce to wish him every success and happiness in his new field and home.

Industries Committee

President Gould appointed the committee to seek new industries for the city, consisting of J. H. Strelberg, W. J. Hall, J. F. Cibuzar, F. J. Lowey, and Walter F. Wieland.

A. L. Hoffman reported the matter of trying to get industries to locate in the old court house, and stated that, among others, canning and incubator industries are showing interest.

F. H. Gruenhagen and F. J. Lowey spoke on the retention of the old court house, and said the matter will come to a vote at the next meeting of the county commissioners. On March 6, C. B. Rowley advised keeping the building intact, as the cost of dismantling will exceed the value of the material secured. S. R. Adair asked that a committee appear before the county board and have its option renewed for another period, trying to secure some business to occupy it, which motion carried.

Map Committee Report

The committee named recently to investigate the matter of a map of the lake region adjacent to Brainerd reported great progress. W. M. Murphy has traced a map of the territory, showing the main roads, streams and lakes, including the whole of Gull Lake, and some other portions nearby but out of the county, and stated that the map will be reduced to a convenient size. S. R. Adair explained the financing of the project. F. J. Lowey spoke on data the map will carry.

The chamber endorsed the map as a major work of the season, and thanked the committee for its labors on the matter.

Information regarding Trunk Highway No. 2 was received, in reply to an inquiry regarding federal construction on that highway. Mr.

Murphy reported a federal survey along that road, for the purpose of using it as part of a federal highway, but this season no federal work will be undertaken on the road beyond placing markers designating it as a federal road.

Farmers' Institute

The farmers of the county were invited to hold their Farmers' Institute in Brainerd, the date to be February 23, at the Chamber of Commerce. A luncheon will be served at the Chamber of Commerce rooms for the farmers attending.

Henry I. Cohen spoke of the Kansas City auto journal advertising this year. George Johnson asked for the support of the Chamber of Commerce in the request of the Brainerd Concert band for an engagement at the state fair this year, and the chamber promised its support towards this matter.

Three new members were voted into the chamber, they being Dr. C. A. Nelson, E. F. Gates, and L. W. Sherlund.

BAPTIST JUNIORS AND METHODISTS MARK UP WINS

BILLY SMITH LEADS MATES TO VICTORY OVER EVANGELICALS, 6-1

GUIN AND HAUTALA ARE HEAVY SCORERS IN WIN OVER SWEDISH BAPTISTS

No game tonight. Two games Friday night.

The First Baptist Juniors and the Methodist Intermediates were returned victors in games played at the Y. M. C. A. last night, when they downed the Evangelical Juniors and the Swedish Baptist Intermediates respectively.

The score of the Junior game was 6-1, with little Billy Smith leading the attack. The midget scored two field goals, and showed a class of open-field running which if transferred to a football field would have netted more than one touchdown. In his running, he dribbled the ball with the uncanny instinct of a horn drier, having a wary eye out for his opponents. He never rushes in for an opponent, but dodges with the ball through openings.

Smith was high scorer, with two field goals, his teammate, Nelson, scoring one. Nelson also played a remarkable game, always scrapping.

Marshall of the Evangelicals played slightly better than his usual good game, but had hard luck on shots, and had no players with whom he could work effectively, although the team played a fine brand of ball. The game as a whole was one of the prettiest seen in the tournament.

Guin was high man with eight baskets, while Hautala was close behind with seven, and Ray Anderson contributed four.

In justice to the Swedes, it must be said that they played without the services of two of their regulars. Leif and Max were missing when the whistle sounded, and the game went on with two substitutes in their places.

HARBO SCORES 4 GOALS AND 3 FREE THROWS FOR SCORING HONORS

The Crosby team went down to defeat last night at the hands of the Pine River Pirates, by a score of 26-20. The game was fast throughout, and was played at Pine River.

Harbo, center of the winning team, took scoring honors with four field goals and three free throws. Ellingson of Crosby was a close second with ten points. Ellingson was put out of the game on personal fouls in the last quarter.

'WHITE COLLAR' LIQUOR VENDORS TAKEN IN RAID

Sionx City, Ia., Feb. 11.—(UP)—“White collar” liquor vendors, the aristocrats of the bootlegging business, rubbed elbows with ordinary hip flask bootleggers in the Sionx City jail today as a result of the city's most extensive prohibition drive.

Several women were among the 50 alleged violators of the prohibition act rounded up overnight by a corps of federal agents working under W. E. Dunnigan of Omaha, assistant regional prohibition director.

The raids, climaxing several months of undercover work, were directed at soft drink parlors, rooming houses and drug stores. All of the prisoners were denied bail pending hearings before United States Commissioner A. W. Johnson.

NYE CANDIDACY DISTURBS POISE OF N. D. POLITICS

EFFORTS MADE TO COMPROMISE DIFFERENCES OF FACTIONS

SEEK TO PREVENT SLIP IN NON-PARTISAN CONVENTION AT BISMARCK

Bismarck, N. D., Feb. 11.—(UP)—A special committee composed of five regular nonpartisans and five farmer-laborites, today attempted to compromise differences between the two factions arising from the candidacy of Gerald P. Nye for the United States senate and prevent a split in the nonpartisan convention here.

Farmer laborites, admitting themselves outnumbered by Governor A. G. Sorlie's forces, threaten to bolt the league unless William Lemke, Fargo, is endorsed over Nye for the senate race in the special election and primary. Nonpartisans are stubbornly insisting that Nye succeed himself.

Desertion of the farmer laborites would assure defeat of nonpartisan candidates at the spring primaries, leaders claim. Unless a compromise is reached some delegates fear a movement on the part of the farmer laborites to solicit aid of A. C. Townley and place a ticket in the field.

Such a move, it is feared, would result in election of candidates endorsed by the independent voters' association or administration republicans and disintegration of the progressive movement in North Dakota.

TWO GLEEMANS TELL AMAZING STORY TO JURY

Cleveland, Ohio, Feb. 11.—(UP)—Ben and Abe Gleeman, lifers in the Minnesota state prison, were taken before the federal grand jury today and told an amazing story of political intrigue and murder that revolved about the activities of the alleged bootleg alcohol trust in St. Paul and Minneapolis.

The brothers claim they were framed by Attorney Abe S. Ginsberg, Minneapolis, for the murder of Bert Stevens, in St. Paul last February. Ginsberg, they claim, was a member of the alleged alcohol ring and tried to save Morrie Miller, another member, whom they charge with being the actual slayer.

The Minneapolis ring, government agents charge, was only a ramification of the “trust” which operated the Superior Industrial Alcohol company plant, seized here last August.

IS AGAINST CHURCH CAMPAIGN FOR MEMBERSHIP

Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 11.—(UP)—The sins of the world cannot be atoned “by a house to house campaign,” declared Rev. H. O. Meyer of the Calvary Baptist church in announcing his opposition to a city wide drive for church membership.

Reverend Meyer's announcement brought the prospects of a fresh “modernist-fundamentalist” controversy. He said membership drives “were children of modernism.”

Protestant churches of Des Moines had agreed to join forces in a personal visitation campaign to increase church memberships.

BODY OF MAN FOUND FROZEN IN CAKE OF ICE

Rockford, Ill., Feb. 11.—The body of an unidentified man, frozen into a cake of ice, which was floating down Rock river when discovered by a trapper from the bank, lies at a local morgue.

Two human hands projecting from the ice led to the discovery of the body which was floating face up. Whether the man's death was due to accident or murder cannot be determined. The body is so incased in ice and debris that a description cannot be given until this melts.

DOUBLE MURDER MYSTERY AT YOUNGSTOWN, O.

BOOTLEGGER RIVALRY BELIEVED MAINSPRING OF CRIME 2 COUSINS HANGED OR STRANGLED AND BEATEN WITH CLUBS

Youngstown, O., Feb. 11.—(UP)—Bootleggers' rivalry was seen by authorities today as they grappled with a double murder mystery in which two cousins were hanged or strangled, beaten with clubs and then abandoned in their own automobile on a country road four miles north of here.

The bodies of the two men, Dominic and Russio Russo, were discovered at daylight. Their necks were bound together with rope and both had been severely beaten about the head and body.

A carefully planned crime is seen by authorities in every detail of the mystery. It is believed the two men were waylaid or enticed to some unknown place, tortured to death and then driven by their slayers to the spot where the bodies were found.

Trumbull county authorities are following several different leads in attempting to track down the murderers.

One threat had been made to Dominic's brother, Ralph, and an attempt made on his life December 24. Both bodies bore cuts and bruises, indicating they had been beaten with a heavy club. Marks, as though each had been strangled to death with a rope, were found on the necks.

The men were between 25 and 30 years old. Both were well dressed. Mrs. John Anderson, who lives a short distance from where the machine was abandoned, told authorities she saw an automobile drive up and stop last night. Two men alighted, she said. They boarded a second car, which had been following the first and drove toward Youngstown.

The only clues that may lead authorities to an identification are a membership card in the Brownstone Athletic association and a whisky prescription. The card bore no signature. The prescription was made out to Mike Ross.

“THE MERRY WIDOW” Threatens to Break All Attendance Records at the New Park

sources of the largest studio and producing organization in the world. There has been only one aim in the making of “The Merry Widow,” coming on Friday to the New Park for three days, and that was to give the public the most fascinating screen entertainment in motion picture, and to say that the aim has been achieved does not begin to describe it, according to all reports.

COAL STRIKE SETTLEMENT HOPE HAS EFFECT ON MARKET

New York, Feb. 11.—(UP)—Hopeful feelings regarding early settlement of the anthracite dispute led to a brisk recovery in today's late trading after the market had moved with great irregularity through the morning hours.

Following up their success in Ward Baking “B” and California Packing and Postum Cereal, bearishly inclined operators sought out other vulnerable spots and succeeded in covering urgent liquidation in specialties like Foundation company, Reynolds, American Woolen and National Dairy Products.

Even while weakness in these stocks was at an acute stage Allied Chemical, American Can and General Electric were pushing into record territory.

When the general market righted itself in the afternoon General Electric scored a further sharp advance on the expectation that a price of 400 would be justified by the capital readjustment plan, which banking interests sponsoring the company look for as an outcome of the meeting due Feb. 26.

“Midnight Molly” at the Lyceum

Crook melodrama of a high order, spinning along to a sensational climax which leaves the audience tense with emotion and moist-eyed with the spirit of sacrifice, “Midnight Molly,” third of the features starring Evelyn Brent, showing at the Lyceum tonight and Friday. As in the previous pictures, the star is very capably supported. In this instance, John Dillon, Bruce Gordon, Leon Bary and John Gough shine above others. Lloyd Ingraham directed the picture, and proves particularly well fitted to get the greatest possible effect from a rattling good story.
